Dear Mr. Anderson:

Thank you for your generous support of The University of Texas at Arlington. Your most recent gift of $4,100.00 to the Kenneth E. Cox Memorial Scholarship is greatly appreciated.

Gifts like yours play a strategic role in helping students to fulfill their goals – and in helping the University as a whole realize its mission to provide excellence in education, personal development, research, and service for our students and for the many constituencies that we serve.

We are proud that our federally funded research has increased more than 200 percent in recent years. In an effort to better serve our community, we continue to expand the University beyond its traditional borders at our educational center in Fort Worth. As the University continues to grow and build on its reputation as a world class research institution, your investment becomes increasingly important.

Long-term partnerships with friends like National Association of Purchasing Management mean a great deal to all of us at UT Arlington, but especially to the students who benefit directly from your generosity. You have our heartfelt thanks for your commitment to UT Arlington.

Sincerely,

James C. Lewis
Vice President for Development
